Who are we?

Liberation
Route
Europe

The LRE Foundation is a growing international, inclusive network connecting people and organisations dedicated to preserving World War II heritage, memory, and meaning, and making this history relevant and accessible for future generations.

Our Liberation Route Europe, a certified Cultural Route of the Council of Europe, is a transnational memorial connecting WWII remembrance sites and stories across Europe through hiking and cycling trails. Visitors can explore this history through ready-to-go 'Themed Route' itineraries focused on specific events, topics, and locations.

What is a Travel Trade Supporter?

Designed for tour operators and travel professionals, this partnership connects your organisation to the international LRE network. Benefit from expert destination knowledge, industry connections, marketing opportunities, educational visits, exclusive events, our trusted LRE Guides network, and resources to create meaningful remembrance tourism experiences. Strengthen your product offering, increase your visibility, and help keep these important sites and stories alive for future generations.
